

Georges Kremlis

Georges Kremlis has started his career in the European Union in 1981.

He served as the Head of the "Cohesion Policy and Environmental Impact Assessments" Unit in the Directorate-General for the Environment of the European Commission for many years. He has joined as a Head of Unit DG Environment in 1995 and has served since then as the Head of the Legal and the Governance Units.

Before joining DG Environment, he was a Legal advisor in the European Commission's Legal Service, with an interruption of three years (1990-1993) in Greece. In that period he exercised the functions of Advisor to the Greek Minister of National Economy (1990), National co-ordinator for the EC internal market (1990-1992), Head of the EC Committee under the Greek Prime Minister (1993) and Secretary General for the European affairs in the Ministry of National Economy (1993).

Today he is member of the Environmental and Social Advisory Council of the EBRD and Honorary Director as Active Senior in DGENV in charge of circular economy and insularity.

He is also:

- The founding and Honorary President of the Hellenic Environmental Law Association;

- The honorary President of the NGO INTEN-Synergy (Inter-Disciplinary Environmental Synergy) active on Sustainable development issues and trans-boundary environmental co-operation in the Balkans, the Black Sea and Eastern Mediterranean;
- A founding member of a number of different European and International Associations, such as F.I.D.E. (International Federation for European Law), UAE (Association of European Lawyers), the ECU Institute (Lyon), etc;
- A visiting Professor in a number of European Universities, such Athens Law School, University Centre of Nancy, University Centre of Luxembourg, etc;
- Organised and participated as a moderator or speaker in various seminars on EU Policy and/or Law across the EU;
- A lawyer of the Greek Supreme Court and in the past he has been a Research fellow at the Centre of International Economic and European Law (1979-1980), in Thessaloniki.

He is the author of a very large number of various publications, in English, French and Greek, including books and articles, on EU Policy and Law, in particular institutional law, business law, private international law, environmental law, comparative law etc.